

Session of 8 February, am

Environmental goods: renewable energy technologies and equipment

9:30 – 10:30

Renewable energy: trade as a factor

- Types of renewable energy goods, equipment and technologies and their interface with international trade
- Developing countries' participation in trade in renewables, a regional model of trade liberalization

Resource person: Rick Sellers (International Energy Agency)

Discussant: Mohammed Berdai, General Director of the Renewables Energy Centre (Morocco)

10:30 – 12:00

Renewables in the international trading system

- The impact of international trade disciplines on renewables markets
- Renewables in the negotiations under paragraph 31(iii) of the Doha Ministerial Declaration
- "On the ground" barriers to developing countries' trade in renewables

Resource person: Robert Howse, Renewable Energy International Law Project

Discussant: Chintan Shah, General Manager, Suzlon Energy Limited (India)

12:00 – 13:00

Promoting trade and development opportunities for renewable energy

- Relative success of incentive mechanisms, best practices and their relevance to developing countries
- The impact of environmental regimes and regulations

Resource persons: Christoph Hoischen, International Financial Consulting Ltd., Leslie Parker, Managing Director; Renewable Energy International Law Project

Discussants: Michael Solovjev, Director, Legal Department, Ministry of Energy, Russian Federation, Martin Schöepe, Ministry for Environment, Natural Resources and Nuclear Safety, Germany